It has been suggested that in case Pulaski voted in its proposed bond issue at its second election to be held within next sixty days, which it is believed will be done, a route be selected for a Somerset Mt. Vernon turnpike, starting at end of the Mt. Vernon-Skeggs Creek three and half mile pike via Hanford and on to county line near Plato where Pulaski will meet us with a pike. It is claimed for this proposed route that the grading would be much lighter and cheaper thru the valleys, on the route, than over the hills that cannot be avoided on other routes. One of the leading citizens on the proposed line offers to pay expenses of engineers to make surveys and estimates; another will donate $1,000 and one $500. Others are being interested in the movement and should Pulaski's bond issue carry there will be something doing in Skeggs Valley.

PULASKI. Citizens of Pulaski undismayed by the small majority given at last week's election against the bond issue for good roads, will try it again sixty days after the date of the late election. Many leading citizens after ascertaining that a majority of the people voted in favor of the issue have changed their stand in the matter and not only promise to vote yes in next election but will work for the proposition. Already an election has been called and the campaign will open at Somerset next Monday when Judge B. J. Bethurum, O. H. Waddell and other leading speakers will address Pulaski's citizens advocating this most important and far reaching public utility.

A general movement toward the observance of "Go to Sunday-school Day" on May 3, as proclaimed by Gov. McCreary, is noted thruout the State.

Mt. Vernon, Ky.

Dear Sir:
We are in receipt of your circular letter of April, 1914, being sent to the citizens of Rockcastle County. We wish to commend you upon your enterprise in boosting business in your town and vicinity. In these days of commerce, efforts of these kind are most necessary and are resultant of their proportion of success.

Wishing you a full measure of success in all of your efforts, beg to remain,

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:
We beg to acknowledge receipt of your circular letter together with your co-operation circular of the Mt. Vernon Commercial Club and congratulate your thrifty community on their showing.

If every community would follow your example and get the business and public spirited men together so that their energy and intelligence could be used as an unit for the betterment of the community we would have a much better State, than we now have. Here's to you and the success of Mt. Vernon.

Very truly yours,

THE DEPOT GIRL

The poem below, taken from Sovereign Visitor, may be something less than a classic in composition, but the reader will perhaps agree that the author edges up dangerously near the truth.

In every town where railroads ran
You'll find the "depot girl;"
Some who are frisky and full of fun

And remind you of pet squirrels.
Some are old and some are young
And some are middle-aged;

Some know how to use their tongues
Like a parrot that is caged.
Some have "rats" upon the brain—

"Rats" quite large and brains quite small—
Some go just to see the train.
While others go to see it all.

Some go there to get their "mail"
Others take their "male" along.
Some go there for fear they fail

To hear their sweetheart's latest song.
Some go there to meet their aunts—
Knowing well they'll never come;

But, you see, it gives a chance
To go on a little "bum"
Some go there in broad daylight,
To be seen and see;

Others prefer the shades o' night,
When they feel more free.
Some advice I'd like to give

These wayward "depot strollers"—
It's true as gospel, sure as you live
That you'll end like all "high rollers."

The girl that seeks the love of man
Will find it not in such a place;
But, if she wishes, she surely can
Easily find her own disgrace.

Some parents ought to take a pill
Of good old "common sense,"
And block the road that down hill
Where troubles all commence.

And keep the girls that wear short skirts
Away from the temptor's snare,
And thus keep a lot of budding flirts
From blooming as it were.

—A Long Fellow.
